EMERGING THEMES IN FINANCIAL REGULATION 2021: INSURERS

28 January 2021

2020 brought disruption on a previously unimagined scale. As we look ahead to 2021, it is clear that with the fall-out from the global pandemic, Brexit, and the headwinds of legal and regulatory change, the coming year will continue to provide challenges - how we respond to these challenges will shape our businesses for many years to come.

The final event of our sector-focused webinars provided an invaluable opportunity to learn more about the emerging regulatory risks and opportunities for the Insurers sector and helped clients get ready for another challenging year ahead.

The session examined the key regulatory-related risks insurers and insurance intermediaries will face in 2021, including legal and regulatory change and the impact of external factors including COVID-19 and Brexit.

The session included:

- Views from our team on the most significant regulatory-related risks facing your sector;
- Opportunities for the sector arising from key areas of change;
- Q&A.

Speakers:

- Nathan Willmott, Partner, Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner LLP
- Polly James, Partner, Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner LLP
